Know before you go: TRAVEL requirements for your journey

All of Viking's sailings are available exclusively for fully vaccinated guests, until further notice.

- To travel with Viking, all guests must be "fully vaccinated" at least 14 days prior to traveling.
- As an added layer of protection, Viking strongly recommends that, when eligible, guests receive a booster dose prior to traveling.
- Note: While Viking does not require a booster for guests, many countries do require a booster (for entry and to visit attractions, dining facilities and event venues) and the details will vary.

Viking does not require guests to provide proof of a negative COVID-19 test prior to departure. However, to ensure your journey is smooth and that you are able to fully enjoy your voyage as planned, we highly recommend that all guests take a pre-departure COVID-19 test prior to beginning your travels. Please note, some countries may have their own testing requirements to enter or to board a cruise ship.

Country-specific travel requirements vary by country. Should the first country along your itinerary have travel requirements, they will be outlined below:

https://docs.vikingcruises.com/pdf/14-PreCruiseRequirement-All-US_CAN_UK_AU_NZ.pdf
<https://docs.vikingcruises.com/pdf/14-PreCruiseRequirement-All-US_CAN_UK_AU_NZ.pdf>

As your embarkation date approaches, ensure you are prepared for any pre-flight procedures and local regulations. While travel has simplified, requirements may continue to change before your departure. We recommend you revisit the information at least 7 days prior to your departure.
